

E · EXECUTE

before it settles

An encounter with acting when you don't yet know how you feel.

🕒 10 MINUTES

THE MESS

1. Think of something you've been putting off — not because it's too hard, but because you're not sure how you feel about it yet.
2. Do one small piece of it. Five minutes of work is enough. While you're moving, notice what the feeling does.
3. When you stop, write one sentence — not about how you feel now, but about what the feeling did while you were working. Did it shift? Sharpen? Disappear?

Notice: whether moving changed the feeling, or just revealed it more clearly.

NO OUTCOME REQUIRED.
