write it down now

An encounter with the version of events you're living inside right now.

🕒 10 MINUTES

THE MESS

1. Think of something significant you're currently in the middle of — a project, a decision, a change. Write three to four sentences about it as honestly as you can. Not how you'd explain it to someone else. What it actually feels like from inside it, today.
2. Add one sentence at the end: "What I cannot see yet is..." Write whatever comes, even if it's just "I don't know."
3. Put the date on it. Keep it somewhere you'll find it in three to six months.

Notice: whether writing the present version feels different from how you'd tell this story later.

NO OUTCOME REQUIRED.
