

E · EXECUTE

the rough draft move

An encounter with the gap between waiting to be ready and actually starting.

🕒 5 MINUTES

THE MESS

1. Name the thing you have been postponing because it is not ready yet.
2. Do the worst possible version of the first step. Right now. In 5 minutes.
3. Stop when the time runs out, whether it is done or not.

Notice: what "not ready" was actually protecting you from.

NO OUTCOME REQUIRED.
