the failure harvest

An encounter with what only difficulty can teach.

🕒 10 MINUTES

THE MESS

1. Think of something from the past week that went wrong, fell short, or surprised you badly.
2. Write one thing it taught you that success in the same situation couldn't have.
3. Don't write what you'll do differently. Write only what you now know.

Notice: whether the teaching feels earned or thin.

NO OUTCOME REQUIRED.
