

M · MONITOR

the polish audit

An encounter with what you are tidying instead of seeing.

🕒 10 MINUTES

THE MESS

1. List three things you have cleaned, organized, or straightened in the last week — physical or otherwise.
2. For each one, ask honestly: was this maintenance, or was this avoidance?
3. If it was avoidance — name what it was keeping you from looking at.

Notice: whether tidying felt like relief or like relief that something got covered.

NO OUTCOME REQUIRED.
