An encounter with the conditions you have been creating versus the outcomes you have been trying to produce.

🕒 10 MINUTES

THE MESS

1. Name one area of your life where you have been working hard but not seeing results — a relationship, a habit, a project.
2. Separate two lists: what outcomes have you been chasing, and what conditions have you actually been tending? Write both.
3. Ask: if you stopped chasing the outcome and only tended the conditions, what would you do differently tomorrow?

Notice: the difference between controlling outcomes and creating conditions.

NO OUTCOME REQUIRED.
