the witness

An encounter with someone who has seen you circle this before.

🕒 15 MINUTES

THE MESS

1. Think of one person who has known you long enough to have watched you work through a recurring difficulty. It doesn't have to be someone you talk to often.
2. Write down what you think that person would say about where you are now versus where you were the last time this came up. Not what they would say to comfort you — what they would actually observe.
3. Consider what you would need to say to bring them fully current. You don't have to say it today. Just write it.

Notice: whether your pattern looks different from the outside than it does from inside it.

NO OUTCOME REQUIRED.
